Jesus wants to teach us three things about Himself:

- He has not come at this time as a political or social solution to man's problem, He has come to save us from sin (vs. 6:22-34)
- He has come to reveal that it is He Himself that I need, not His gifts (vs. 6:35-51)
- He has come to reveal that it is by giving His life that He becomes eternal food to satisfy sinners (vs. 6:52-71)

Four Lessons From the Crowd.....

First, some people seek a Savior and a salvation of their own preference.

Second, some people will simply openly and permanently reject the gospel of Christ

Third, some people may not understand it fully, but they hold tenaciously to what Jesus taught

Fourth, some people may appear to genuinely believe but never truly believe
