

The Book of Hebrews
Be Diligent to Enter God's Rest
Hebrews 4:1-13 (page 839)

Sunday, July 10, 2016

Frank Mascaro

The promise of God's rest calls me to a response of faithfulness (Heb 4:1-5; Gen 2:2)

- I am called to act in faith on God's truth so that I don't miss His rest due to unbelief (vs 1-2)
- Rest = entering into the inheritance God promises His people

The time to respond to God's offer of rest is today!
(Heb 4:6-10)

- God's rest is always available to every new generation of believers (vs 6-7)
- Jesus is greater than Joshua because He offers a superior rest to God's people (vs 8-10)

The resources that keep me responsive to God's rest
(Heb 4:11-13)

- The Word of God:
 - diagnoses my thoughts and motives (v 12)
 - uncovers me and holds me accountable (v 13)