

The Book of Hebrews
Christ The Mediator of The New Covenant
Hebrews 9:16-28 (page 842)

Sunday, September 4, 2016

Frank Mascaro

Review:

The basis and demonstration for Christ's mediatorship in the New Testament is His sacrificial death (Heb 9:11-15)

Hebrews 9:16-28:

In order to mediate the New Covenant, Christ's better sacrifice was necessary because (Heb 9:16-28):

- A will (testament) requires death (Heb 9:16-18)
- Forgiveness requires blood
(Heb 9:18-26; Exo 20:1-24:18; Gen 15:1-21)
- Judgment demands a substitute (Heb 9:27-28)

Point:

Because of His superior sacrifice, Jesus Christ has become the mediator of a superior covenant.