

Life Lessons From 1 Samuel
Sold Out For the Glory of God
1 Samuel 17:1-58 (page 197)

Sunday, April 30, 2017

Frank Mascaro

God is looking for servants who:

- have a clear spiritual perspective
(1 Sam 17:1-30; Eph 6:10-18)

Who are not deterred by what:

- others think (vs 11, 24)
  - others say (vs 25, 27-30)
-
- live out their faith practically (1 Sam 17:31-40)
It requires that we have a faith that is rooted in:
    - personal experience (vs 31-36; Rom 5:3-5)
    - the living God and not human methods (vs 37-40)
  - are focused on His glory (1 Sam 17:41-54)
  - learn to follow before they lead (1 Sam 17:55-58)

Life Lessons:

1. Actively pursue a personal worldview that is founded on a spiritual, and not worldly, perspective.
2. Live out every area of your life so that it is directed to demonstrating God's glory to all those around you.