

Life Lessons From 1 Samuel
The Strength of Covenant Relationship
1 Samuel 20:1-42 (page 200)

Sunday, May 21, 2017

Frank Mascaro

A covenant relationship is based on personal commitment and mutual affection (1 Sam 18:1-4)

A covenant relationship transcends:

- differences (1 Sam 20:1-4)
- testing (1 Sam 20:5-10)
- the future (1 Sam 20:11-23)
- family allegiance (1 Sam 20:24-34)
- circumstances (1 Sam 20:35-42)

Life Lessons:

A covenant relationship:

- gives proof of genuine love
- grows
- perseveres through hard or difficult times
- is enduring
- promotes stability

Covenant relationship governs our relationships:

- with others
- with Jesus Christ