FROM THE PASTOR

Faithful., A familiar word that has been used in Christian circles for generations...but sometimes it is not easily understood and can be even harder to live out. The United States Marine Corp adopted the word in 1883 as part of its Latin motto, Semper Fidelis, which means "always faithful." This phrase signified the dedication and loyalty that individual Marines have for Corps and Country. In his second letter to Timothy, Paul encourages the young pastor to remain faithful to his calling and to Christ and to show himself a workman proved by God. But in dark times, when the world seems against you and fear over takes your thoughts, it's not an easy thing to remain faithful. Now more than ever we need to be a people of faith; a church that remains faithful regardless of the circumstances we face. And Paul's words to Timothy to guard the good deposit of faith that was entrusted to him need to be heard in this present generation. I thank you for joining us at Westside Christian Church this morning as we study together the book of 2 Timothy and strive to become "Faithful At All Cost!" ~Nathan Cherry
