God is a God of mission (Eph 1:9-10; Ps 86:8-10; 98:1-3; Isa 45:18-22; Zeph 2:11; Lk 2:25-33)

Jesus modeled the mission (John 1:1,14;
Gen 3:16-17; Lk 19:10; Mk 10:44-45; Rom 5:9-11)

God made me for participation in His mission
(Matt 4:18-22; 28:18-20; Acts 1:8; John 17:18; 15:26-27;
20:21; 2 Cor 5:18-21; Eph 3:7-11)

Why am I Here?....

The Next Step....

Do I believe that God made me to be part of His mission in the world?

If so, what am I doing today that gives evidence of that? If not, what steps can I take to begin to engage with God in that mission?

Why do you think so many Christians are reluctant to respond to God in this area in their lives? What about me?

Who is someone that I know who needs to hear some "good news"? How can I build a bridge to share God's love and the message of Jesus with them starting this week?
