

Surrender to God brings:

- a new call of God to grow my faith (Genesis 22:1-2)

- a new opportunity to obey and worship God
(Genesis 22:3-8; Hebrews 11:17-19)

- a new understanding of who God is (Genesis 22:9-14; Romans 12:1-2)

- a new confirmation of God's promises
(Genesis 22:15-19; Hebrews 8:13-20)

Wrestling With Surrender....

Can you remember a time that God spoke to you about taking a deeper step of faith? What was it? How did you respond?

What has God given you that might be something you have difficulty surrendering to God? A possession? A relationship? A career? A _____? Why? _____

How have difficult decisions or situations opened up new opportunities to trust the Lord? Have you gained new insight into God's character and nature through these times? Discuss.

Why is surrendering to God such a difficult act? How do you think you could be less resistive to God's commands? _____
