

Jesus In His Own Words
I Am The Bread of Life
John 6:25-40 (page 744)

Sunday, February 5, 2012

Frank Mascaro

I may miss the true identity of Jesus because:

- I am more focused on the physical than the eternal
(John 6:25-27)
- I think I need to do something rather than believe in Someone (John 6:28-29)
- I hold on to tradition over truth (John 6:30-34)

Point: Wrong thinking must be corrected

I begin to understand who Jesus really is when I:

- realize that He is the source of life (John 6:35)
- see that He is the sustainer of my life (John 6:36)
- become confident that God has a purpose for me
(John 6:37-40)

Point: It is about a Person, not a system.

Thinking it over...

Do I struggle with any of the areas that we talked about today in thinking about Jesus? Which one is most difficult? Why?

What receives the most attention in my life - spiritual success or material success? Explain. Do I need to change anything?

What is the one thing that God is most interested that I do with Jesus (6:29)? How does that coincide with Jesus' words that He is the "Bread of Life"? In light of that, what is my "daily diet"?