

Jesus In His Own Words
I Am The Way, The Truth and The Life
John 14:1-7 (page 752)

Sunday, March 18, 2012

Frank Mascaro

Jesus is our c e r t a i n t y in an u n c e r t a i n world:

- He is our certainty of a f u t u r e (John 14:1-5)

- He is our certainty of r e c o n c i l i a t i o n - the Way
(John 14:6a; Ephesians 2:1-3; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21)

- He is our certainty of r e l i a b i l i t y - the Truth
(John 14:6b; 1:14,17; Hebrews 1:1-3; Revelation 19:11)

- He is our certainty of r e s u r r e c t i o n - the Life
(John 14:6c; 1:1-4; 3:36; 5:24; 11:25; 14:19;
1 Corinthians 15:50-57)

It is o n l y through J e s u s that we have a c c e s s to God
(John 14:6d; Acts 4:10-12; Matthew 7:13-14)

Taking it home....

What troubles your heart? How do you handle those uncertainties that come into your life? How do Jesus' words help take another perspective? _____

---

---

---

---

Why do you think Jesus wants us to have certainty about these issues (our future, reconciliation with God, His reliability, and our resurrection)? Does that give new insight to your response in the previous question? Why or why not? _____

---

---

---

---

Whom do you need to tell about the way Jesus offers a relationship with God? What holds you back? _____

---

---

---

---