

Galatians: Faith and Freedom
What's The Purpose of The Law Anyway?
Galatians 3:15-25 (page 811)

Sunday, October 14, 2012

Frank Mascaro

The purpose of the Law is to remind me that:

- righteousness only comes through faith in God's promise (Galatians 3:15-18)

- I am a sinner (Galatians 3:19-23)

- I need a Savior (Galatians 3:24-25)

Digging In...

What would you rather live under...law or promise? Why?

What are the law's limitations? What was the ultimate purpose of the law? _____

After studying this passage, how would you explain to someone that keeping the Ten Commandments or the Golden Rule is not going to make one right with God? _____

How does understanding these things change the way you live out your faith? Explain. _____
