

Galatians: Faith and Freedom
I Have a New Identity
Galatians 3:26-29 (page 812)

Sunday, October 21, 2012

Frank Mascaro

Moving from the condemnation of the Law to the freedom of faith in Christ means that I have:

- a new relationship and identity with God
(Gal 3:26-27; Eph 2:1-10; 1 Cor 12:12-14; Col 3:8-15)

- a new family and unity (Gal 3:28; Eph 2:11-22)

- a new future and inheritance
(Gal 3:29; Eph 1:18-19; 1 Peter 1:3-4)

My new identity in Christ means that I am free to live my whole life in response to His grace and love.

Making it stick...

How is faith in Christ a fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham?

Explain. _____
_____
_____

Why is it important to understand who we really are in Christ? How does that impact the way we think? Act? Explain. _____

_____
_____

What does it mean to be an heir of God's promises? _____

_____
_____

Do you think our unity in Christ is important to God? Why or why not? _____

_____
_____