

Christmas With the Prophets
He is our PEACE!
Micah 5:1-5a (page 649)

Sunday, December 9, 2012

Frank Mascaro

Christmas brought the promise of the birth of a ruler who would deliver us (Micah 5:1-2; 2 Kings 25:1-7)

- He would come from Bethlehem
(Gen 35:16-20; Ruth 4:11; 1 Sam 16:1,7,12; Matt 2:3-6)

- He would be a king
(Isaiah 9:7; 2 Sam 7:16; Luke 1:30-33; John 7:41-42)

- He would be a very unique person
(John 1:1-3; 8:58; Col 1:15-17)

*Christmas brought the promise of a shepherd
(Micah 5:3-4; Isaiah 40:11; John 10:11,27-28)*

*Christmas brought the promise of peace
(Micah 5:5; Phil 4:6-7; John 14:27)*

Christmas meditation....

How does the pinpoint accuracy of Micah's prophecy affect how you think about the Bible? About your faith? About the future?

If the religious leaders knew that their Messiah was to be born in Bethlehem (Matt 2:3-6) why do you think they were not interested in this "king" as much as Herod was? _____

In what ways has your faith in Jesus brought you peace in your life? Explain. _____
