Three principles of radical faith....

Principle # 1: My awareness of who Jesus is and who I am is tied to my response to Him.

Principle # 2: Radically following Jesus means that I am preoccupied with Him and Him alone.

Principle # 3: A person who is never deeply committed to anything but their own comfort and security can never understand someone who is growing in intimacy with Jesus Christ.

Making it personal:

Heart check: Which of these two characters most represents or portrays my relationship with Jesus? _____

How aware am I of who Jesus really is and how does that affect my response to Him? Do I just KNOW ABOUT Him or am I really getting to KNOW HIM? What can I begin to adjust to develop intimacy with Jesus? _____

Where or Who is my treasure? Could I tell Jesus this morning that He is what I treasure above anyone or anything OR would I have to admit that He is somewhere down the list? Will I determine to make Him my treasure today? Spend some time with Him and realign your heart today. _____
